Again, this year voting will not be done by paper ballot, but electronically. Everyone will receive an email with directions on how to vote electronically. It will be done online in a very confidential and secure manner by a third party. Voting will be open for 24 hours so everyone has the opportunity to vote. We hope to increase the participation of the membership in this year's election. Call the Board office at 313-278-2220 with your questions
